LINEA Festival | OPEN Call

9–25 February 2023

LINEA Festival was born in 2019 in the Apulian cultural environment with the aim of expanding the horizons of contemporary art and proposing a new vision of an accurate, involved, active community in artistic and social fields. The festival met the national scene with targeted and site-specific actions: workshops, performances, concerts, group exhibitions that have attracted an increasing number of visitors and It was able to connect with other artistic and cultural institutions and foundations. From the beginning, the festival laid its roots on solid foundations built by professionals who have been working for years in the contemporary digital art and culture sector. Through a great work carried out and an excellent effort, it has been easier to catch the interest of important foundations and prestigious partners.
